

3/7/56

1935

The NSCID 16 Committee, through its Exploitation Subcommittee has completed detailed surveys of the higher priority needs of the IAC Agencies for information from foreign publications. As all of these needs cannot be met by existing facilities, available manpower for exploitation of foreign publications sources has been concentrated on the most urgent ones. The Committee is now studying appropriate means for meeting the remainder of the established priority requirements.

SECRET